

TOLEDO OPERA OPERA ON WHEELS

FALL: OCTOBER 15 TO NOVEMBER 16, 2018
COST: $500*      DURATION: 40 MINUTES

SPRING: APRIL 22 TO MAY 24, 2019
MAXIMUM AUDIENCE: 500

Each year, Toledo Opera’s Resident Artists go “on the road” to elementary schools in northwestern Ohio and southeastern Michigan. Every Opera on Wheels production comes complete with a talented cast of singers and a pianist/accompanist. Also provided are a digital piano, costumes, set and props. A popular question and answer session follows the performance. A Study Guide with suggested pre- and post-performance activities is available

ROMEO AND JULIET

Adapted from Gounod’s Roméo et Juliette by Joshua Borths    Directed by James M. Norman

“Two households... in fair Verona” are rival families, wanting nothing to do with one another. And yet, when Romeo sneaks into a party at Juliet’s house, the two young people meet, fall in love, and change their families’ history forever. Based on the opera by Charles Gounod, the play by William Shakespeare, and every tale of forbidden love the world over, this adaptation of the classic Romeo and Juliet story deals with the timeless themes of love, justice, compassion and more. With two possible endings, schools can choose which they prefer or leave it up to fate, having the audience vote on which ending they wish in real time.
