

TOLEDO OPERA GUILD

BAKELESS BAKE SALE: ETHIOPIAN MENU! RAISING FUNDS FOR AIDA CAST DINNER

The Toledo Opera Guild has a long tradition of providing a meal during rehearsal week prior to an opera performance for the entire Toledo Opera cast and chorus. We have a special challenge this fall because Giuseppe Verdi's AIDA will be taking the stage, and there will be a large chorus. But we're up for it!

Captive in ancient Egypt, the Ethiopian Princess Aida must navigate her love for the heroic Radamès, her devotion to her homeland, and the schemes of the jealous Princess Amneris. All the Toledo Opera Guild has to do is pay for dinner!

Please make "selections" on the menu below and remit a total donation with the enclosed form, or visit our website at www.toledoopera.org/guild/toledo-opera-guild/ to make electronic purchases.

For each $10 you donate, you will be entered into a drawing for two guests to enjoy an Ethiopian feast at the Blue Nile restaurant in Ann Arbor as part of a "Go with the Guild!" event in October. THANK YOU!

Send form and payment to Toledo Opera Guild, 425 Jefferson Ave., Suite 601, Toledo, OH 43604-1080 by Sept. 18, 2026.

ORDER NAME: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

MENU:

_____ $10: Injera (fermented flatbread)

_____ $20: Kik Alecha (yellow split peas)

_____ $50: Doro Wat (spicy chicken)

_____ $100: Ethiopian Honey Wine

_____ $200: Blue Nile Feast

TOTAL: $ _____

Photo from Blue Nile: bluenileannarbor.com