A popular question and answer session follows the performance. A Teacher Guide with suggested pre- and post-performance activities is available.

THE STYLIST OF SEVILLE

Adapted from Rossini's The Barber of Seville by Jennifer Cresswell
Directed by James M. Norman

Adapted from The Barber of Seville, perhaps the most popular comic opera of all time, the plot of The Stylist of Seville involves a handsome young Spanish count who falls in love "at first sight" with the teen-aged Rosina. Rosina lives in the house of her guardian, Dr. Bartolo, who intends to marry her himself. The count hires Figara, a clever, witty stylist, to help him gain access to Bartolo's house. This is just the beginning of a number of humorous schemes expressed through vivacious and romantic music. Will a young lady's wish to find a boyfriend her own age be fulfilled?
